

Brazilian Hostess Returning Here

SEÑOR DIAZ Brazilian Ambassador's Son HAS ARRIVED IN NEW YORK

Will Meet Family on Pier

Senor Anibal Cruz Diaz, the new minister to the United States from Chile and Senora Diaz, arrived in New York yesterday on the Prinz August Wilhelm, of the Hamburg-American line's Atlantic service. They were met at the pier by Senor Yocham and Senor Salinas, of the legation at Washington, who went to New York early in the week for that purpose.

The new minister is well known in Washington, having been secretary of the Chilean legation here from 1901 to 1905, when Senor Don Pedro Montt, the present president of Chile, was the minister here.

The Minister and Senora Diaz, with Senor Yocham and Senor Salinas are at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York until tomorrow, when they will come to Washington and occupy apartments in the Burlington until they can select a suitable legation home.

Langhorne-Forsythe.

Miss Edith Egan Forsythe, daughter of H. D. Forsythe, of New Orleans, was married last evening in her father's handsome country home, in Albemarle county, about twenty miles from Charlottesville, to William Henry Langhorne, better known as "Buck" Langhorne.

Miss Nora Langhorne, youngest sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor, and Honore Forsythe was the best man for Mr. Langhorne.

Owing to a recent death in the family, the ceremony was simple and unostentatious and was attended only by a small family party.

The bride is well known in Virginia and is much admired at the University of Virginia, where she has been a frequent visitor.

The bridegroom is the youngest son of Charles Chiswell Langhorne, of Mirador, Albemarle county, and a brother of Mrs. William Waldorf Astor, of Cleveland, England; Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, of New York; Mrs. Reginald Brooks, of New York; and Mrs. T. Moncure Perkins, of Richmond, the four famous beautiful Langhorne girls. Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Perkins were the only two present.

After a small informal reception Mr. and Mrs. Langhorne drove across country to their future home.

Mrs. and Miss Snare Leave.
Mrs. George U. Snare and her daughter, Miss Blanche L. Snare, returned to their home in Atlantic City yesterday morning. They spent a week in Washington at the former with their niece and cousin, Miss Bertha Lewis.

Tea Given by Mrs. Dubois.

A tea was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Dubois in her home on Sixteenth street. The proceeds of which were given to the Army and Navy Chapter of the D. A. R., to add to the funds for purchasing a suitable memorial to place in Continental Hall.

The drawing room was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and American flags were placed on the mantels and draperies. The table decorations in the dining room were chrysanthemums. Mrs. Dubois was assisted by Mrs. F. E. Hayden, wife of Commander Hayden; Mrs. Gleason, wife of Admiral Gleason; Miss Townsend, Mrs. Barrell, wife of Commander Henry H. Barrell, and Mrs. Irving Dunlap. An interesting feature of the afternoon's entertainment was the exhibition of the charter of the Army and Navy Chapter, which was shown in a frame made from wood taken from the Kearsarge and the Ironclads.

Grady-Graham.

Miss Clara B. Graham, of Davis, Va., was married to Dr. J. Wilton Grady, of Greenville, S. C., last evening in the Calvary Baptist Church. The Rev. Dr. H. H. Greenlee performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Grady will make their home in Washington.

Duncan-Denison.

Mrs. Georgia B. Denison, widow of William O. Denison, of Washington, was married to Dr. George S. Duncan at noon yesterday in Baltimore in the Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Dr. John T. Stoner. Dr. Duncan is a member of the Presbytery of Washington. He was the first pastor of the Eokington Presbyterian Church, and formerly professor of Semitic languages and literature in Berlin, Germany, and for two years pastor of the American Church at The Hague, Holland. Dr. and Mrs. Duncan's future home will be 2300 Seventh street northeast.

Signor Montagna Gives Dinner.

Signor Montagna, charge d'affaires of the Italian embassy, entertained at a dinner of fourteen covers last evening complimentary to two of his colleagues, who are leaving Washington shortly. Mr. Von Radewitz, of the German embassy staff, who will act as charge d'affaires of the German legation in Mexico in the absence of Baron von Wagnheim for the next three or four months; and M. Stent-Itany, of the Austrian embassy, who has been transferred to the embassy at Constantinople. The list of guests included the Swiss minister, M. Vogely Baron Ambrey, charge d'affaires of the Austrian embassy; Baron Haymerle, also of the Austrian embassy; Viscount de Chambrun, of the French embassy; Prince de Larnat, of the Russian embassy; Mr. Skjelsk, of the Norwegian legation; and Signor Cora and Signor Centaro, of the Italian embassy.

Craig Lease Home.

Rear Admiral Craig has leased the house at 129 G street, and will be there for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Craig will be at home Thursday afternoons until December 15.

Kolb-Stanton.

Miss Louise Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanton, and Leo Kolb, of Washington, were married yesterday at high noon in Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, the Rev. Thomas Hart. The church was effectively decorated with chrysanthemums, palms, and autumn foliage. Miss Grace Ogden, of California, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary and Miss Margaret Reilly, of New York; Miss Edith Holt, and Miss Theresa Lane. Joseph Shedy was best man, and the ushers were Robert Howard, Richard Combs, Dr. Harry Proce, and J. Reilly Stanton, brother of the bride. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a beautiful gown of heavy ivory-white silk, princess style, with a bertha of duchesse lace, a long tulle veil caught up with a wreath of natural orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaids wore delicately gowned in white dotted net over tulle silk, and wore yellow sashes. After the ceremony there was an informal reception in the bride's home, Thirteenth and O streets, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kolb left for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will make their home with the bride's parents.

MME. NABUCO,
Wife of the Brazilian Ambassador, Who Will Arrive in New York on the

MME. NABUCO LUSITANIA PASSENGER

The son of the Brazilian ambassador, Maurice Nabuco, went to New York this morning to meet his mother, Mme. Nabuco, who is returning on the Lusitania from Europe, where she has spent the spring and summer with her children. The family are expected to return to Washington tomorrow.

Mme. Nabuco has with her her daughter, Miss Carolyn Nabuco, who will probably be among the season's debutantes, and her younger children, Maria Anna and Yocham Nabuco, Jr. The Brazilian embassy will be the scene of numerous large and brilliant entertainments this winter, and Mme. Nabuco will be welcomed back to society by her friends in Washington after a year of mourning.

Informal Dinner at British Embassy.

The British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce entertained at a small informal dinner company last evening in the embassy on Connecticut avenue in honor of Sir Anthony Patrick McDonnell, under secretary of the lord lieutenant of Ireland, who is a guest at the embassy. Those invited to meet Sir Anthony were Mr. Justice and Mrs. Holmes, the Third Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Huntington Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward and Miss Tuckerman.

C. A. Bromwells Return.

Col. and Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell have returned to Washington and are established in their home on New Hampshire avenue for the winter. They returned to New York yesterday on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie from Europe, where they went in August. Col. Bromwell having been detailed to attend the maneuvers of the Greek army in September.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement is announced of Miss Violetta Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Pierce, of Buffalo, to Grosvenor Blaine Clarkson, of New York, who formerly lived at 3 Dupont Circle, Washington. Miss Pierce, who recently returned from Europe with her mother, is one of the best known young women in Buffalo society. Her father is former president of the chamber of commerce of Buffalo, and the present head of the International Railway Company's lines. Mr. Clarkson, who until lately has been in special service for the Government, is a son of General James G. Clarkson, former chairman of the Republican National Committee, and now surveyor of customs for the port of New York.

Monahan-Apperius.

A wedding of interest to Washingtonians will take place November 23, when John McKiernan Monahan, of Louisville, Ky., a former Georgetown student, will marry Sadie Michel Apperius, sister of Sam Apperius, the famous Georgetown athlete. The ceremony will be performed in the home of the bride's parents at Montgomery, Ala.

Andrews-Simmons.

Miss Eliza Simmons, daughter of Senator F. M. Simmons, of North Carolina, and Graham Andrews, youngest son of Col. A. B. Andrews, vice president of the Southern Railway, were married yesterday afternoon at 5:30 in the Church of the Good Shepherd, at Raleigh, N. C.

The Rev. Dr. I. McK. Pittenger, rector of the church, read the marriage service.

was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Ella Simmons and Miss Isabelle Simmons, younger sisters of the bride. John H. Andrews acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Watkins W. Roberts, A. B. Andrews, Jr., Albert Cox, Burke Little, Blair Patterson, and Thomas Bell. Senator Simmons and his daughters, who spend the season in Washington, left here Monday to attend the wedding. The Senator gave his daughter in marriage.

With his younger daughters, the Misses Simmons, he is expected to return to Washington within a week.

Belmonts Due Last of Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont are expected to arrive in New York on the Amerika at the end of the week. While in Europe they bought a great many things for the furnishing and decoration of their new house now being built in this city. As it will possibly not be completed for another year, they will occupy the Morgan house, Scott Circle, this season.

Guggenheim Lease House.

Senator and Mrs. Guggenheim, of Colorado, have leased Mrs. Charles Murr's house, on Massachusetts avenue, for the season. They will be in Washington several days this week, but will not move into their house until November 18.

Gallier-Dumont.

Miss Ethel Dumont was married to William G. Gallier last evening in the Church of the Reformation. Several hundred guests were present at the ceremony. Miss Edith Dumont, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Annie Gallier, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Ruth Dumont. Mr. Merrill Gallier was best man, and the ushers were Lieut. Charles R. Sanderson, U. S. M. C., Ward W. Fleaharty, N. Winthrop Dumont, and Thomas W. Perry. There was no reception, but after the ceremony there was an informal gathering of relatives at the bride's home.

THE Axminsters being shown by us this Autumn can be measured only by the highest standards of design, weave, and colorings.

Axminster Carpets

Their artistic character, beauty of coloring, and uniformity of the weave speak forcibly of the care used in the preparation of the designs and in the manufacture of the carpets from them. The patterns conform to the best principles of decorative art and impart individuality to the rooms in which they are used.
